Poem Recitation Competition (CCA)

A school is the workshop of life-building in which the raw material is the nascent mind of young pupils. As a part of CCA competition, students of grade-6 to 10 were given the topic- Poem Recitation on theme- Freedom/ Independence on 13th August, 2021. The famous educator Wei Shusheng says: “The sense of language has also been strengthened by reciting more”. In the process of English learning, the language material that students use is fairly rich but students see them approximately, hear them roughly and read them slightly. Poetry leaves no deep impression on students. Therefore, in speaking, they have to speak correctly, in writing they have to write very fluently and express smoothly which increases students’ self-confidence and actual social abilities and improve their English level greatly. Recitation of rhymes, action songs, poems etc. can make a significant contribution to the development of skills of listening and speaking. Young learners do not need any extra effort to memorize poems etc., rather they enjoy learning them. Just by listening and reciting the poems several times, they become part of the learners' permanent collection. Thus, they will be getting the opportunity to develop the skill of reading also. The competition inspired the young poets to come forward and recite on stage. The students came up with different poems on the theme Freedom/ Independence and recited them with great fondness and zeal for the country. They enjoyed the perfection of expression, thoughts, emotions, rhythm and music of words. The young poets enthralled the audience with their articulation and memory skills while reciting poems. It was a splendid opportunity for them to gain confidence through stage exposure. Everyone was delighted after seeing their pleasing performances. Ms.M.Srilatha

Assembly Presentation by Grade I-X topic:

"Good Manners and Etiquettes"

Good manners will open doors that the best education cannot. Clarence Thomas

The foundation for good manners is respect. If you don't respect others, you'll be considered rude. If you show respect to others, they're more likely to be nice back to you. People aren't born knowing how to behave in social situations, so they have to be taught etiquette at an early age. Children need to learn manners from adults who should be good role models. As they get older, they'll have more confidence if they know what to do. Also, other people will enjoy being around them. Etiquette is all about human social behaviour. It matters because we want to live in a reasonably harmonious community. The students of Grade 1 to 10 took part in the morning assembly on the theme "Good manners and Etiquette." The students of all grades showcased the theme depicting on its importance. They came out with beautiful thoughts, words, and read out articles. They also performed a short skit on when to say "please", "thank you", "sorry" etc. on good manners. The power point presentation designed by the teachers was commendable with all assembly sequence.

Assembly presentation by Grade I-X Topic: "Values and Ethics"

Great people have great values and great ethics.

Values are very much personal while ethics is very much societal. Values can be said to be the guiding principles in one's life and can be defined as a bridge by which an individual makes a decision regarding good and bad, right or wrong, and most important or less important. On the other hand, Ethics can be defined as set of rules formulated by a country or a company or some institutions. Ethics is mainly based on the moral values. To bring the awareness of the concept "Values and Ethics" among the children, it was chosen as a weekly assembly theme. All the students from grade I to X showcased their ideas, thoughts, article, importance through skits, poems and power point presentations.

Innovation in education encourages teachers and students to explore, research and use all the tools to uncover something new. It involves a different way of looking at problems and solving them. The thinking process that goes into it will help the students develop their creativity and their problem solving skills.

Education is the path to innovation.

When you take technology and mix it with art you always come up with something innovative. In this regard, our science facilitator Ms. Madhuri Mishra has been awarded 'Innovative teacher of the year' by Global Teaching Excellence Award 2021.

Congratulations and best wishes for your next adventure!
